

MD20 Lions Leadership Institute

Training The Lions of MD20
To Be The Leaders of Tomorrow

Personal Mission Statement

You will participate in a guided series of activities to assist you in developing and writing your own mission statement

Motivating Club Members

We examine the personal needs and motivation of club members and suggest action that can create or inhibit motivation.

Time Management

Learn the value and importance of time and the best use of 1440. Discuss obstacles that can make time management difficult, and identify strategies that will help you to overcome these obstacles

Working in Teams

This session will familiarize participants with the characteristics of teams and how to effective teams develop and excel!

Public Speaking

Do you dread public speaking? Learn a framework to prepare for speaking in public, and guidelines for effective and confident delivery.

Setting Goals/Goal Writing

You will understand the value of establishing goals to guide actions, and provide a system for planning and achievement of the goals you will write in class.

Conflict Management

We will review the common causes of conflict, strategies to resolve conflict, and benefits of conflict.

Diversity

Learn about the dimensions of diversity and the benefits it can provide for your club. You will learn strategies for overcoming challenges and ways to create a climate that supports diversity.

LCIF / Lions Fundamentals

Learn and understand our Association's and Foundations history, principles, and structure while also exploring the benefits of membership.

Coping with Change

Change is the only constant. Learn how to deal with change and use change to your advantage to improve your club.

Lions History

Learn about Lions' history from a different perspective, from someone who has not only seen many changes but also helped to make those changes: our own PID, Dr. Jack Weber.

Communicating in a Fast-paced World

In a fast-paced world, effective communication requires being clear, concise, and mindful of nonverbal cues, as well as actively listening and adapting to different communication styles.

Delegation

The process of entrusting authority and responsibility for specific tasks to other team members. Learn how you can delegate tasks to others on your team.

The MD-20 Lions Leadership Institute is an intensive, interactive, participant driven three-day learning experience. Come prepared to devote those three days to learning with your fellow Lions.

At the end of the Institute, you will have new experiences, increase knowledge and confidence.

But most of all you will exchange thoughts, and ideas and made new friends from Lions across MD-20, New York State and Bermuda.

The cost for the MD-20 Regional Lions Leadership Institute (RLLI) for 2025 is $470. This cost covers all meals, room, supplies and materials. Payment must be made in full prior to attending the Institute. Applications for the Institute can be obtained from emailing the Coordinators at the email address above or on the MD-20 website. As this is an intensive three-day course, we ask that you let your family and employer know you will not be readily available. We understand situations do occur that will require your attention but, they need to be kept to a minimum. You will be expected to attend and participate in all classes, exercises, seminars and meals.
